

Dear client, please be advised that the majority of our departures for Western USA and W. Canada is done on Fridays. If you have chosen to ship via our economic LTL service, please review the following transit guideline. In the eventuality that you will need a precise delivery date and commitment from Normandin Transit, it will be important that you contact our operations at transport@normandintransit.com and our customer service will reply with the possibility to meet your requested delivery date.

Please note that on some occasions, Normandin Transit will offer you the alternative to put your delivery on our expedited priority service $$.
